

KAREN IBACH BOWDEN

Attorney

Karen is an experienced transactional lawyer and litigator who provides strategic, business-oriented, and proactive legal advice and support to her clients. Karen has practiced law for over twenty years in a wide range of areas, including employment law, litigation, health care, real estate, contracts, business, and commercial lending. A former shareholder of a large regional law firm and senior counsel of a Jacksonville civil litigation firm, Karen recently served as associate general counsel for a national non-profit health care organization.

The oldest of five children, Karen grew up in Jacksonville and is a graduate of The Bolles School. She attended Smith College, graduated cum laude from Tulane University, and then earned her law degree, with honors, from the University of Florida.

Karen is active in the community and currently serves on the board of Rethreaded, Inc., a nonprofit organization that provides employment opportunities for human trafficking survivors. In her free time, Karen enjoys traveling, walking on the beach, reading, and spending time with her fiancé, family, and friends.
