

Kathleen Wubker

Attorney, Abel Bean Law

Kathleen (Katie) Wubker joins Abel Bean Law after serving as general counsel for a Jacksonville-based manufacturer. As general counsel, Katie managed several corporate restructurings while also handling all aspects of the firm's litigation, including the selection and oversight of outside counsel. Katie's experience as general counsel gives her a unique perspective and insight into the needs of her clients.

Katie also worked for a top-tier national law firm as a commercial litigator where she represented local, national, and international corporations in all aspects of commercial contract and tort litigation. Katie developed specific experience in patent infringement, trademarks, intellectual property issues, and insurance coverage.

Katie has clerked for judges on both the federal district court for the Middle District of Florida, and the Supreme Court of Florida.

In her community, Katie has previously served as a member of the Women's Board for Wolfson's Children's Hospital and as secretary for the board of directors for her children's school. In her free time, Katie enjoys running, reading, and spending time with her family.
