

Jared J. Burns

Attorney, Abel Bean Law

Jared is an attorney with experience in federal court matters. Before joining Abel Bean in 2020, Jared was a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Timothy J. Corrigan, a United States District Judge for the Middle District of Florida. In that capacity, Jared worked on hundreds of federal cases, researching and writing on a wide variety of matters.

Jared earned his Bachelor of Art degree from Dickinson College and his Master of Business Administration and Juris Doctor degrees from the University of Florida. Jared graduated from law school magna cum laude, finishing in the top three percent of his class, was admitted to the Order of the Coif, was an editor on the Florida Law Review, and was president of the Military Law Student Association. Additionally, he published a note in the Florida Law Review on data breaches affecting the federal government.

Jared is also an officer in the United States Marine Corps, having served on active duty and now in the reserves. In his free time, Jared enjoys playing hockey, fishing, and spending time with his wife Melissa and dog Maddie.

904-944-4110 (d)
774-392-1130 (m)

jburns@abelbeanlaw.com

About Jared J. Burns

Jared provides skilled counsel to clients regarding litigation in commercial disputes, insurance and bad faith litigation, as well as appellate and general counsel matters.

Areas of Focus

- Commercial Litigation
- Insurance Coverage and Bad Faith Litigation
- Appellate Matters
- General Counsel

Education

- Dickinson College, B.A.
- University of Florida, M.B.A.
- University of Florida, J.D.

Career & Community Highlights

- Federal Bar Association, Jacksonville Chapter Member
- Officer, United States Marine Corps
- University of Florida, Levin School of Law
Order of the Coif
Magna Cum Laude
Law Review
Four Book Awards